Of necessity, she would compile herbal recipes and other practical information used to treat the illnesses and injuries of both family and retainers. This information would come from a variety of sources: her mother & other relatives, neighbors and travelers. Following the tradition of her forebears, Ms. Martin has compiled helpful information on over thirty common health complaints and fifteen magical situations. As her ancestors would have recorded, she includes information on growing your own herbs and how to make herbal preparations.

She is defined by her relationship to the world around her, by her ethics, and by her affinity with the natural world. #2 Green witchcraft is a nature-based spirituality that focuses on the individual's interaction with his or her natural environment. It acknowledges a god and a goddess, and recognizes that magic is a natural phenomenon. #3 The path of the green witch is an individualized practice, and there is no body of formal knowledge passed on through careful training. Modern eclectic groups may base their regular practice on the ideals of green witchcraft, but it is not the same thing. #4 The green witch believes in healing, harmony, and balance. She understands that the earth and all living things on it are a collective term for both nature and people.
