Hidden Gems Dec 15 2020 Pack your bags and hop aboard the bus to Camp "Hidden Gems", nestled in the serene and tranquil atmosphere of the hill station of Ooty. Join Rewa, Lata, Asif, James, Bhaskar and many others in their week-long adventure, as they embark on the trip of their lives. Friendships are fostered, huddled around the crackling campfire, and the children listen intently as they exchange stories about defining moments from their lives. Come, share in their experiences and always remember that each one of you is a precious "GEM"! The idea behind this book was to put forward basic values which over a period of time have appealed to the author. She has expressed them in a manner which would interest the children and adults alike. A group of twenty children go on a camp in the cool environs of Ooty. The children bond over different activities conducted over six days and on the last day of the camp, they sit around the bonfire at night and exchange learnings from their personal experiences. The language has been kept simple, keeping the interest of children in mind. These anecdotes shared by the children have been captured under different titles in the book. This collection of fourteen realistic fiction stories will engage the reader and highlight some of life's important lessons.

Philip's Guide to Gems Apr 06 2020 An important feature of the book is a comprehensive visual identification key. This makes it easy for the reader to recognize the type of a stone, and so move on to the correct section of the book for a detailed identification. The main part of the book examines each major group of gems from every part of the world, with each group divided into clearly structured units. The first section deals with precious gems in their many forms, with illustrations of priceless jewellery. The second and longer section concentrates on the semiprecious and novelty stones, the agates and the crystals used by many professional and amateur jewellers and purchased by the majority of collectors and jewellery enthusiasts.
